The Judy Ross Textiles pillow collection pairs centuries-old chain stitch techniques with contemporary design. Each piece is meticulously embroidered by hand by master artisans. The wool is hand dyed, adding depth and nuance to the colour. Shown here in Pistachio are Rik Rak and Branches. www.judyrosstextiles.com

IN THIS room setting from Manuel Canovas the curtains are in Grasse and the chairs upholstered in Pau. www.manuelcanovas.com

BEAUMONT & FLETCHER'S Cathay silk fabric is also available with a paper-backing to be used as an elegant wall-covering. It is the perfect evocation of the beautiful Chinoiserie 'papiers peints' that came out of France in the 18th Century. It is beautifully printed on fine silk taffeta in an exciting range of colourways.
