

A Little Seedy

Bring texture to floors with Judy Ross' Seed, a hand-embroidered, chain-stitched New Zealand wool rug. Available in several neutral colors, this palette works well in a variety of settings. From $1,200, Caypo Home, 17 Newtown Ln, East Hampton, (631) 324-8146 or www.judyrosstextiles.com. —J.S.

Local Flair

Adrianna Payne's elegant sterling silver hoop earrings with Japanese salmon coral branch and smoky quartz drops are available at the Parrish Art Museum gift shop. $100, 25 Job's Ln, Southampton, (631) 283-2188. Mary Rosa Amblard's pendant necklace, with rough cut and faceted natural semi-precious gemstones and silver beads, evokes the international jet set lifestyle. $320, Anya's Boutique, 28 Job's Ln, Southampton, (631) 283-1018 —L.K.

Prosit!

Designed to elegantly showcase your wine collection, Miele's new MasterCool wine cooler lets bottles take center stage virtually anywhere, behind tempered and tinted glass doors that protect against harmful UV rays. Three unique cooling zones and varying degrees of self-adjusting interior lighting, combined with an integrated cooling and humidity system monitored by Miele's customer-care center, are other key attributes of this unique wine storage system. Architects and Designers Building, 150 E. 58th St, NYC, (800) 843-7231 or www.miele.com. —L.K.

Go Fish

Inspired by Russian Caviar Labels from the 1930–50s, these hors d'œuvre plates come cleverly packaged in a "caviar" gift tin sealed with a red rubber band. $85, home, James!, 55 Main St, East Hampton, (631) 329-8878 —J.S.