

Hello Again.

Remember me? I'm Forum.

I was in the hotel lobby. You already knew I'm great for relaxing, but a guy who's using me to end the final hours on his presentation really understands my potential.

Well, I'm Sling.

If you want to get noticed, wait until that same guy makes his way over to me for a quick drink at the hotel bar. A guy that smart has got to be making great networking opportunities.

See what all the talk's about.
