COLLECTED / ELLEN HAMILTON

"Textiles can change the entire feel of a room. This collection has a well-traveled look, and the colors are happy. A wild mix only works when there's balance—pairs, and colors of equal intensity. Black anchors the other colors, and the throw makes it all cozier."

TEXTURE / BARBARA WESTBROOK

"There is nothing more beautiful than creams and whites. But when all the shades are similar, you need a mix of textures to keep it visually interesting. This is a luxurious, soft feeling. You want to sink into the pillows, or throw a few at someone."

PAIRING / SARA GILBANE

"To keep a look clean, I like to work in pairs, with patterned pillows in front and solids as the backdrop. That deep plum brings the sofa to life in a bold way, and the feathers add a note of bohemian whimsy. This combo will dress up any sofa."
