

Living room: The homeowner's love of wildlife comes through in the decoration of this space. A bird sculpture found on a country trip is displayed in a glass dome, the handkerchief quilted was acquired from a museum. An embroidered cushion by Judy Ross adds softness. The original, elaborate mantelpiece is used to exhibit art and handmade objects, including a willowmere print by the homeowner and a cherry wood bowl found in a second-hand shop. Black and white details on page 10
