

- 1 Shed a Little Light If you've been meaning to brighten up a dark corner of the living room or need a little extra light to read by when lying in bed at night, chances are a new lamp is on the to-do list. This hand-painted tin Pagoda lamp is available in kelly green (shown), white, cream, antique mirror, hot pink, powder blue, turquoise, navy blue, orange and gold leaf. 11"W x 11"D x 30"H. $375. HUDSON, BOSTON, (617) 292-0900, WWW.HUDSON-BOSTON.COM
- 2 Spruce up the Sofa Judy Ross's pillows go a long way toward making a tired sofa sing. The pillows, hand-embroidered in a chain stitch with three-ply, hand-dyed New Zealand wool, come in a wide variety of colors and patterns. Shown, Landscape in cream, coral and marine and Pinwheel in marine and cream. 18" SQ. $195. LILLIAN AUGUST, NORWALK, CONN., (203) 847-3314, WWW.LILLIANAUGUST.COM, WWW.JUDYROSSTEXTILES.COM
- 3 Baby, It's Cold Outside Leave it to the Brits to know how to keep the chill out. This all-wool throw woven in the U.K. looks great over the back of a chair, at the end of a bed or around your shoulders. 64" x 46". $65. POD, BROOKLINE, MASS., (888) 739-3802, WWW.SHOP-POD.COM

2

3

1