

1. Walls lacquered in Benjamin Moore's Aura in Midnight Navy embellish a tiny hallway bar. 2. Nisbet in the kitchen. 3. Purple drawer fronts on a side table by the New Traditionalists and the client's chartreuse lamp enliven the master bedroom. 4. Oversize glass tiles backed in silver leaf brighten the space between the kitchen counter and the upper cabinets. 5. Nisbet upholstered the powder room walls in one of her own fabrics, custom-colored in "hot, hot, hot pink." 6. She designed a trundle bed for a boy's room to maximize space. One wall was turned into a display area with Claridge Bulletin Board Cork. Shades in Ralph Lauren Home Lighthouse Stripe. 7. A long headboard in Brisbane by Missoni unites twin beds. OPPOSITE: In the master bedroom, Holland & Sherry's boiled wool was used for the curtains and headboard to create a cozy and enveloping feel. Custom Cool Rugs' Opaque carpet "adds a little excitement." Walls in Benjamin Moore's Aura in White Chocolate. FOR MORE DETAILS, SEE RESOURCES
